

BRITISH TAXES NOT COLLECTED

Government is Still Living on a Hand to Mouth Policy

BOTH PARTIES IN THE DARK

Reform of the House of Lords is a Certainty but How it is to be Done is Still a Question

London, March 28.—The government's financial year is almost complete with the estimation of the national expenditure still in the air and the government is being carried on by the hand to mouth process of a parliamentary vote on the account of extensive curtailment of treasury loans. Many taxes are not being collected and the banks are paying back the income tax on dividends which under the ordinary conditions would be coming into the treasury.

There is no question that the majority of Englishmen decide to uphold the supremacy of the commons in all matters of finance, but it is equally beyond doubt that the majority of Englishmen will think much oftener than twice before they will agree on the proposals which would result in a single chamber government. One keen observer of English politics declared that both parties are walking in the dark, neither knowing what will be the eventual outcome of the situation which both are agreed cannot possibly continue. A reform of the House of Lords can be reckoned upon as almost a certainty, but exactly how that reform is to be carried out without injury to the one hand and the principles of true democracy and on the other to the conservative instinct in the national character is a problem yet to be tackled.

Premier Asquith's resolution can only be regarded as a feeler and it is considered unlikely that the difficulties of so intricate a problem will be settled by the time the next appeal is made to the country. Consequently the new parliament yet to be elected is more likely to have to deal with the study rather than the settlement of the question of what to do with the Lords, and pending that settlement home rule for Ireland seems a remote contingency.

BURNED, ROASTED, BAKED

Serious Charges Brought Against Well-Known Professor at Princeton University.

Trenton, N.J., March 28.—Mrs. Henry Page of this city brought suit for $20,000 damages today against Professor Howard McClellan and Edward Princeton Adams of Princeton University, alleging that they burned her husband to severely with X-rays that he died. The complaint also charged that her husband was "burned, roasted and baked" so badly that his limbs became decayed and grew gradually worse until he died last November. Mrs. Page suffered from big disease and the defendants took X-ray photographs to determine the extent of the malady. His wife says that he was fifteen minutes under the rays.

OFF TO THE CONVENTION

A large party of teachers left this afternoon for Calgary to attend the first convention of the teachers of Alberta, which opens tomorrow morning. Among those in the party were: W. Ray, M.A., principal of the High School; F. S. Carr, R.A.; C. P. A. Keffler, R.A.; and C. O. Hicks, B.A., all of the High School staff; and J. A. McGregor, R.A., principal of Queen's Avenue school. Mr. Ray is a member of the provincial executive committee. Mr. Carr is to speak on "The Place of Nature Study and Agriculture in School Work," and Mr. Ray will give a lecture on "The Curriculum for High Schools."

Some action may be taken to ask the railway companies to grant a reduced rate to teachers in the West who wish to go east for the summer holidays. A cheap rate is granted at the Christmas holidays, but the time then is so short that the teachers cannot take advantage of it. The Saskatchewan Teachers' Association has also been asked to join in the movement.

Brandon Man's Contract.

Brandon, Man., March 28.—John Bradley, a well known Brandon railway contractor has been awarded the contract for building the new C.P.R. line from Cranston, north of Regina, to Colonsay. This is the biggest single contract let by the C.P.R. this year. The road will be 110 miles in length, running around the south of Long Lake, thence northwards. Contractors Bradley will employ 800 teams and 1,500 men on the job which will be rushed to completion.

CONTRACT LET ON EDMONTON LINE

Janse, Macdonald and Timothy Get the Contract for the Eastern Section.

Winnipeg, March 28.—Another important contract has been let by the Canadian Pacific Railway. The line which is to be built as a result, is that running southeast from the town of Maclin, Saskatchewan. This is the western portion of the line from Outlook. J. D. McArthur and Company will build the eastern section and it was stated that J. D. McArthur and the firm of Janse, Macdonald and Timothy were tied for the work, the two firms putting in bids which are practically identical. The contract has been awarded to the latter company. Maclin is a point on the new main line of the Canadian Pacific, between Winnipeg and Edmonton. By building into that place, the C.P.R. will be able to bring in ties and other material from the west for the speedier construction of the line to Outlook.

Doukhobors Get Contract. A number of important contracts have been also let by the Grand Trunk Pacific. Peter Vereglin takes one of these. With the help of his own people he will construct the dump from Yorkton due north to Canora, a distance of approximately thirty miles. This is a portion of the line which runs through Melville to Regina, and which will eventually be extended to the Bay, according to popular understanding.

The contract for the eastern part of this same line, from Ilkerton to Regina, has been let to the J. D. McArthur Company. This company has the last contract for the construction of this road to the Qu'Appelle Valley. They have now been awarded the contract for the remainder and will build the road into Regina this year. As already announced, the firm has also the contract for the construction of the line southeast from the capital, in the direction of Port Arthur.

J. D. McArthur has also the contract for other branches in various parts of the prairie provinces. He will build the line running north from Watrous to Prince Rupert. There is a stretch of fifty miles to be covered there. He will build the line from Regina to Battleford, fifty miles. He will also build the line from Canora to Calgary.

SETTLERS HAVE LOTS OF MONEY

Immigrants from United States Carried About $1,000 per Head

MILLION DOLLARS IN ONE DAY

Settlers Passing Through in Less Than 24 Hours Represented Over $1,000,000 Capital

Ottawa, March 28.—W. J. White, inspector of Canadian government offices in the United States, is very enthusiastic over the number and class of immigrants coming to Canada this year. In eleven months of the present fiscal year 86,488 immigrants have entered Canada from the neighboring republic, showing a very satisfactory increase over the corresponding period of previous fiscal year, when the number amounted to 80,886. The increase in numbers is not less gratifying than the quality of people who are coming to take up their homes in the Dominion.

"On one train two weeks ago," said Mr. White, "new settlers thereon had in cash or cheques a total of $2,250,000 and in one day which I spent at the St. Paul office, settlers passing through in less than 24 hours represented a capital of a little over $1,000,000."

Had $1,000 Per Capita.

Mr. White went on to explain that for the last few years statistics gathered from incoming settlers from the United States showed that in round numbers they brought into the country in cash or settlers effects $1,000 per capita, and that this year every indication pointed to a larger increase on the per-capita wealth.

"When asked why a class of people so well educated with this world's goods saw fit to break up their old homes and seek a new location under a different flag, and altered conditions, Mr. White said: 'The wheat growing land of the United States is now practically all in the hands of industrial owners, and farmers with families of sons growing up find it impossible to secure an acreage for them to cultivate when they reach years of maturity, the result being that the price of the wheat growing land in the Central and Western States is forced up until prices now range from $50 or $75 to $150 or $200 per acre, according to the quality and location. The American farmer knowing that he can dispose of his property at such advantageous prices and secure in Western Canada virgin soil at prices in the vicinity of $10 per acre, where the cost of cultivation is less, and the return greater, is not slow to avail himself of the opportunity.'"

The fatality was the "didn't know it was loaded" sort. Bordelean was playing with some children, exhibited the revolver to them, and said, "Now, I'll show you how to shoot," he said, and pointed the weapon to his head and pulled the trigger.

HEAD BADLY BATTERED

James White Said Injuries Came From a Revolver Brought in Hands of a Negro.

James White, for the past few days a patient at the Misericordia Hospital, suffering from a badly battered head, was able to leave on Saturday afternoon. White was removed to the hospital about one o'clock Wednesday morning from Dr. D. McGibbon's office, 156 Jasper Ave. East by the city ambulance. He stated then that he had been struck on the head by the butt of a revolver in the hands of a negro, but was unable to say what caused the man to strike the blow.

The police received no report of the affair and on Wednesday when asked for information by The Capital, Dr. McGibbon refused to give any particulars.

AUDIENCE ALL UNDER ARREST

Many Escaped by Fire Escapes and Over Adjoining Roofs.

TWO HUNDRED TAKEN IN

Militia Surrounded the Hall While Police Raided a Chicago West-Side Resort.

Chicago, March 28.—Surrounded by the militia and trapped in a hall where it was charged they were giving an improper performance, two hundred men and women last night attempted to evade arrest by climbing down the fire escape and over the roofs of houses. The arrests took place in a west side hall within two blocks of a police station. Plain clothes men had paid admission to the hall. A signal, while the performance was on, all the doors were shut and locked and the announcement was made that everybody was under arrest. A panic followed. Some women screamed and crawled under the stage. Scores of men climbed out of the windows and retreated over distant roofs. Many reached the street, three stories below, by way of the fire escapes. Finally the windows were shut and all the prisoners were forced to stand in line. Seven women and 172 men were arrested.

MEN MOWED DOWN

Serious Accident in United States Cruiser Charleston near Olongapo.

Manila, March 28.—The report that a fatal accident had occurred on the United States cruiser Charleston was confirmed today. Eight men were killed and several others slightly injured. During the practice at sea off Olongapo, the breech block of a three-inch gun blew off and in its flight across the deck cut through a steel stanchion and mowed down the men in its path. Seven victims were instantly killed. The cause of the explosion is not known.

CLEVER PLAN WAS FOILED

Young Convict at the Penitentiary Made a Try for Liberty.

WAS COVERED WITH EARTH

Guards Saw it all the Time and Stopped the Trick Just at the Last Moment.

Convict No. 234, serving a three-year term for theft and assault, tried to escape from the penitentiary Saturday morning by hiding himself in a wagon-load of earth which was to be taken outside the walls and dumped in a depression near the G.T.P. tracks. The ingenious plan, however, was discovered almost before it was hatched in the fertile mind of No. 234.

A number of convicts were at work on the excavation of the new cell block. Among these were ten or a dozen prisoners that had displayed a great deal of restlessness, and the guards had all received special instructions never to let them out of sight. And Robt. Dickson, No. 234 is known in the outside world, was one of those marked "dangerous." Hence the small chance of any attempt to escape proving successful.

However, 234 didn't know that. So, with the guards knowing what was going on, the abortive plan of escape was gone with. The clay from the excavation was taken out in wagons and dumped near the G.T.P. tracks. While one wagon was driven out, the other was being filled up. Choosing a moment when he thought Guard Wilson was looking the other way, Convict No. 234 jumped into the wagon, and his companions covered him up with loose dirt. Both Guard Wilson at the excavation and Guard Smith who was patrolling the walls, saw this little bit of melodrama, but let it go on as a lesson to the other prisoners.

Was Scared Out of Hiding.

"When the empty wagon returned from the dump, the driver hitched the horses to the loaded wagon and climbing up on the load, stood directly over the already nearly smothered Dickson.

"Drive around to the old cell block," was the unexpected order, and the driver did so. Arrived here, Guard Wilson stepped up to the wagon. "Here, get out of that, No. 234," was the order.

Not a move.

"Hand me a pick, I'll soon stir him up," was Wilson's next remark, but the pick was never put to use, for No. 234 suddenly got a great desire to get out of the wagon. The astonished driver saw the earth at his feet begin to heave, and the next moment Dickson's grimy face showed above the surface, and he was pulled out.

Apart from the seriousness of an attempted escape, the whole affair was almost farcical from the start, and the spectacle of the dirty and disconsolate Dickson was too much for the gravity of the convicts gathered round. No. 234 was then taken before Warden McLaughlin, and sentenced to one month with hard labor. Within ten minutes of the time the attempted escape was discovered, No. 234 was again at work on the excavations. Now, however, he drags a half and chain with him at every step.

Dickson was sentenced on Nov. 30 to three years by Judge Mitchell at Calgary on charges of theft and assault. He is only 22 years of age.

SIX LIVES LOST IN COFFEE POT

Hotel Cat Had Let a Litter of Six Kittens There During the Night.

"A Tragically in the Coffee Pot" might well be the title of a true story that happened Saturday in a certain well-known hotel, situated not more than a thousand miles from Edmonton.

In this particular hotel it is the custom to empty every evening the large coffee urn in which the coffee is made. It is cleaned and washed out, and then the ground coffee is placed in it. Next morning boiling water is poured in and in a few minutes the coffee is ready.

Last Saturday night, as usual, the urn was cleaned out and the fresh coffee placed in it, ready for Sunday morning. Now at this hotel there also lived a tabby cat. During the night pussy investigated the coffee urn thought it would make a fine home, and when she left on a foraging expedition early in the morning, six tiny kittens sprawled in the coffee grounds.

When it came time to prepare the coffee for breakfast the man whose duty it was to do it, did as he always did—he filled up the urn with boiling water. Of course he never thought of looking in the pot, and there was no indication that six little kittens had met an awful death.

In a few minutes the coffee was ready. It was served, and the guests all enjoyed it. In fact, many took a second cup.

And it was not until the evening when the urn was once more cleaned out, that the remains of the feline tragedy were discovered. Unfortunately, it must be added, the mother of the kittens has not displayed any traces of sorrow at the loss of her babies.

MANY PERISHED IN HOTEL FIRE

Dead Number Two Hundred and Fifty—Many Others Injured.

WERE GUESTS AT A BALL

Roof Collapsed Before the Room was Cleared and Many Were Carried Down Into the Ruins.

Mateszalle, Hungary, March 28.—Two hundred and fifty were killed and many others injured in the village of Oskoretic, when fire broke out in a hotel where a ball was being held. A coach house connected with the hotel had been fitted up as a ball room and last night was crowded with several hundred guests when the fire started. It was first noted when a woman's dress was seen to be ablaze and a moment later the pious of several of the other women were in flames. To make matters worse, the roof fell in before the hall could be cleared and many injured ones who were guests of the crash at the doors had been prevented from making their escape were buried with the dead in the ruins.

WAITING FOR RAILWAY

Pacific and Yellowhead Coal Companies Ready to Do Business.

The Pacific Pass Coal Fields, Ltd., and the Yellowhead Coal Co., both companies that have strongly entrenched themselves in coal properties west of Edmonton, are anxiously awaiting the laying of a spur line from the main line of the G.T.P. to put their mines in a position to mine the coal for export.

This was the statement made to The Capital this morning by R. S. Scott of the Pacific Pass Colliery, who has returned from an expedition made several weeks ago with this year's supplies for the men at work. Mr. Scott says that the coal on the property is very accessible as it lies close to the surface, but a spur line is very necessary before operations can progress to any extent. Mr. Scott says that three G.T.P. spur lines are surveyed now, ranging from 45 to 60 miles in length, and one will probably be built this year.

Asked as to the condition of the roads Mr. Scott says that transportation is hampered by the present weather, but that the present weather will soon put the trails and the streams and rivers in passable shape.

MONDAY, MARCH 28, 1910.

The death of Mr. Colin Genge, member for Macleod, is a very tragic result of the controversy which has stirred the province in recent weeks. Mr. Genge, in the hope of taking his seat in the House, left the hospital where he had been undergoing treatment, at an earlier date than he should have, having regard to his condition. On reaching Edmonton he had again to enter a hospital and never took his place in the legislature. His death constitutes the first break that has taken place in the membership of the local assembly. All who were chosen at the first election, that of 1905, are still alive. Mr. Genge was an old-timer in the country, coming out with the first detachment of Mounted Police, and would, if life had been spared him, have undoubtedly had a useful part to play in the political world.

It is satisfactory to learn that something is being done in preparation for the C. P. R. high level bridge. In view of the positive assurances given by the railroad officials at the time the city bylaws were being rushed through, that the work would be proceeded with without delay, people are naturally growing impatient. The idea is widely prevalent that the work of a railway man, engaged in endeavoring to secure something for his company, means nothing. The officials resent the suggestion very warmly, when it is called to their attention, and at least submit a great deal of righteous indignation. But they have only themselves to blame if the public holds the opinion of them that it does. In the present instance, the feeling is growing that the C. P. R. was very keen to get the city tied up to the entrance agreement and that the company now proposes to carry it out when it gets good and ready. If this is not correct, we ought to have some positive information at an early date as to what it intends to do.

Can something not be done to prevent the spread of the bill-board and advertising sign nuisance? The streets are becoming disfigured to an extent which should not be tolerated. The latest outrage is the placing of a huge sign on the river bank where in addition to shutting out the view, it is a perfect eyesore in itself. If we haven't had the foresight to retain the property along the river-front for public uses, we can surely adopt some regulation which will prevent private owners, who have no sense of the fitness of things, from turning it to whatever purpose they like. We have allowed too much liberty to individuals in this respect in the past and it is high time to insist that the general appearance of the city must not be sacrificed to the whims of this man and that.

The Regina Standard refers to Mr. W. R. Clarke as the "president of the defunct Alberta railway." This is what a number of people, who are not friends of Alberta at large, and certainly not this part of the province, have been doing their best to make of the enterprise. But fortunately, it rests on a solid basis and will be proceeded with to completion and bring about what will be nothing short of an economic revolution, despite the movement, fostered by sectional rivalry and that of the other railways. Five years from the present, when it is apparent that the undertaking has meant to Edmonton, the attitude assumed towards it by certain Edmontonians of today, will be a source of wonder.

The Winnipeg Telegram notes with no small degree of satisfaction that present conditions in Alberta ought to make for substantial gains for the Conservatives at Edmonton. It is high time, surely, that Mr. R. R. Bennett took his journalistic admirers of the Telegram and the Calgary Herald aside and reminded them of his statement of some weeks ago that he is merely an interested spectator of all the disturbance that has been going on and that such aid as he has given has no bearing whatever on the fortunes of his party.

"We are well satisfied with the progress being made in the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway; before the next harvest is ready to be handled we shall be able to carry heavy traffic right through from west of Edmonton to the steamships on the great Lakes at Fort William, and it is safe for me to say that a regular service of passenger and freight trains will be running on the G. T. P. tracks to Prince Rupert, our Pacific terminus, in 1912." The foregoing statement was made to a representative of "Canada," published in London, by Mr. C. M. Hays, who is paying his first visit to England since his election to the office of president of the Grand Trunk System, in addition to that of president of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway. "During the coming season," said Mr. Hays, "we expect to be constructing the line speedily, both westerly from Wolf Creek, the point to which the steel has already reached, and easterly from Prince Rupert."

THE FARMERS' OPPORTUNITY

Amid the numerous articles that are being written as to the cause of high prices and the increased cost of living the farmer of today must surely see the word of opportunity in clear unmistakable letters. The increased cost of living is due to the great increase in cost to consumers of staple farm products and this is due to no other cause than decreased or stationary production and increased domestic demand all over this continent. The export of eggs from Canada, once considerable, has practically ceased, exports of butter have fallen from 31,000,000 lbs. to 6,000,000 lbs., exports of cheese from 215,000,000 to 164,000,000 lbs., exports of bacon in pounds are more than cut in two and give promise of disappearing if present conditions prevail. In the province of Ontario, the records of the agricultural department show that during the last ten years, as compared with the previous nineteen years, there has been a great decrease in the production of hogs, milder cows, beef cattle, sheep and lambs and poultry, but a small percentage of increase in the yield per acre of wheat, peas, oats, barley and corn and a correspondingly small increase in the yield per acre of hay and clover. On the other hand the census returns show the population is increasing year by year.

In the United States during the last ten years, the population has increased by some twelve millions. This population is to be found chiefly in the cities and towns and therefore represents that addition to the great body of consumers. The department of agriculture at Washington is responsible for the statement that notwithstanding this great increase in population and consequent increase in demand during the ten years, hogs in farmers' hands have decreased 25 per cent, there being 47,000,000 hogs held by farmers in January 1910, as compared to 62,000,000 in January, 1900. The population increased 15 per cent, and the number of hogs decreased 25 per cent. Cattle of all kinds have increased only 1,200,000 head and sheep have decreased 4,300,000 head. The receipts of live stock at seven primary points in the United States for the month of January, were 30 per cent less than for the same month in 1909. Receipts in hogs at the same points for January were 32 per cent less than in the same month in 1908 and 48 per cent less than for the same month in 1907.

In this province the population is greatly increasing year by year and so is the sum total of farm products. But whatever the ratio of increase in farm production to that of population may be, the fact remains that this year will see a dearth of carload of butter, eggs, poultry, cheese, cured meats, and fruit imported to meet the demands of the consumers. The farms of Alberta will not produce enough of these commodities to meet requirements and they will have to be brought in from outside, thus raising by so much the amount available for export to other countries.

What is the remedy? A common purpose on the part of all identified with agriculture to seek to benefit the output of our farms through the exercise of that quality of effort which reflects sound intelligence, sound organization and sound methods. Sound organization upon every farm in this province, the introduction of mixed farming on a much broader scale, the use of better seed and the improvement in the character of the stock would show such an increase in farm production as would stagger the farmers themselves. The spring season is opening now and much can be done this year.

What Others Say

MR. FOSTER'S BREAKDOWN

(Montreal Herald)
The news that Mr. Foster's nerves have given way under the strain produced by the trial of his libel action need not surprise anyone, for, while he wears his age well, the former Minister of Finance, is no longer a young man, and any excess of worry might very easily do mischief to the health of a man of his years. It is to be hoped that the rest trip he has in contemplation will be the means of restoring him to his customary health and humor. His case affords another instance of the way public life uses up its votaries. Men, even when they look like gods, have to work along on the imperfect organism of flesh with which the common run of humanity are provided, and every now and then one of them drops out because some ridiculous organ has failed to stand the strain. A liver, or a stomach, or a kidney, or some obscure associate of the nervous system, gets out of order, and the demigod has to rest; he is lucky if he is not obliged to stop work altogether. Worry, of course, is worst of all, and as a public man no worry can be quite so bad as that which is occasioned by aspersions upon private honor. When his conduct was first up for criticism, Mr. Foster was moved to displays quite beyond his temperament, but he would have been all right if his friends, think of more of themselves than of him had not forced him into taking a libel action out of which he could never hope to get any satisfaction, and which has in fact crippled him.

KERMIT AND I ARE OUT

"(The Roosevelt hunting party is tired to death and ready to quit," says a returned African traveller. "Roosevelt greatly regrets to hear of the promise of disappearing if present conditions prevail. In the province of Ontario, the records of the agricultural department show that during the last ten years, as compared with the previous nineteen years, there has been a great decrease in the production of hogs, milder cows, beef cattle, sheep and lambs and poultry, but a small percentage of increase in the yield per acre of wheat, peas, oats, barley and corn and a correspondingly small increase in the yield per acre of hay and clover. On the other hand the census returns show the population is increasing year by year."

Pack up our trophies, Kermit, and bale them good and stout. I'm getting sick of the slaughter, it's time we were pulling out. Put in those lion pelts, the hides of the dig-dig, too. The elephant tusks and snake-skins and monkeys and birds we slew. And don't forget the records I ordered you to prepare. Lest some one declare us liars and say we were never there. So, pack up our duffle, Kermit, and nothing of worth o'erlook. For I've read of the fate of Peary, and the doubters of Dr. Cook.

I regret all the criticisms America makes so free. This gabble of "wanton slaughter" is getting too much for me. Of course 'tis the work of knackers denouncing my honored name. As only a bloody butcher, who delights to deplore the game, I, who have slain the lion and wrestled with cheetahs, too. And captured all sorts of critters, to stock up the Yankee zoo! And detailed in thrilling stories how every combat occurred. All featured in Scribner's Monthly at only a plunk a word.

So, pack up our trophies, Kermit, and let us no longer roam. I'm sick of the way they're knocking, and long to be starting home. The papers are giving columns to Peary, and Cook, I see, and Jeffries comes in for mention, but nary a word for me!

I'm out of the headlines, Kermit, where once I was strictly "it." And the fear that folks will forget me brings on a compulsion fit. So, pack up our trophies, Kermit, and let us no longer roam. Tis time that the world discovered that Teddy is still on deck.

Two French Conscripts.

London Globe.
Every year about this time the French papers entertain their readers with the names of the smallest and the heaviest, sometimes the tallest of the conscripts, for this is the season of the year when the youths join the army to commence their training. "The commune of Viney, in 1786, has this year the distinction of not only providing the smallest soldier, but also the tallest. The first is a boy named Marchand, who is 1.06 metres in height, that is a feet six inches. The Daniel Lambert of the conscripts is one Bonnard by name, and he turns the scale at the colossal weight of 122 kilograms or 27 stone 2 pounds. Military training, it is hoped, will have its effect on both.

OUTSIDE VIEW OF SITUATION

E. W. Thompson's Letter on Alberta Affairs to Boston Transcript

OLD PRECEDENTS FOLLOWED

Probable Effect on Dominion Politics in the Province and the Bond Sale Discussed.

In the Boston Transcript, of 19th March, appears a letter from Ottawa, signed by E. W. Thompson, from which the following is an extract:

The Province of Alberta, which abuts on the Rockies, has of late afforded politicians a lesson in the danger of having a great majority. About this time last year the local ministry of Mr. Rutherford was returned to office by the election of thirty-eight supporters in an assembly of forty-one. A plank of the platform on which the ministry stood was the proposition to promote the Alberta & Great Waterways Railways, as well as sundry others. The named road would run north from Edmonton which is three hundred miles north of the United States boundary, to Fort McMurray, some three hundred miles farther north. The scheme, which might have not unreasonably been objected to as premature, was approved by the people. The authorized, the ministry acted energetically. They agreed to guarantee bonds for its building to the tune of $2,000,000 per mile. Its probable cost would be at least $25,000 per mile. But American financiers constituted the company. That gave an opening to a favorite sort of Canadian-Tory howl, especially after the Americans had succeeded in selling the bonds, which bear five per cent. interest, at par, to Mr. J. P. Morgan, with the consequences that they were soon at 110 on the London market. All the money, $7,400,000, was banked to the credit of the Alberta government, not to be paid out to the company except on mileage constructed. Because the bond buyers had apparently made a profit of $2,000,000, some sort of insinuations were voiced that have often been voiced in the States when Washington sold securities that soon rose in the market. "Graft," and "rake off" were imputed. There has not been one particle of evidence that anything improper ever took place. The singularly pure character of Premier Rutherford quite forbids reasonable men to suppose him in connivance at any wrong. But the brains of his government are in the head of Hon. C. W. Cross, attorney general. He is, of course, a hard hitter. So the opposition raised a cry that he had bamboozled Rutherford. Cross charged investigation. His accusers flunked.

Those who know him know that he is no man to participate in graft. But that cry has had a wider effect, farming politics. It synchronized with a rising sentiment in the Calgary region—the southern part of Alberta—that the A. & G. W. railway is too much in the interest of Edmonton and the north, strictly on the ground of justice. It is a certain justice in the opinion that credit of the province should have been wholly employed, first in promoting railways in the more settled regions. All things drew together to incite nearly half of the Assembly against the A. & G. W. project. Mr. Rutherford is a man so affectionate as to be weak in the time of trouble. Instead of vigorously confronting the bolters of his own party, he paltered with them. One of his colleagues, Mr. Cushing of Calgary, resigned to lead the opposition. He made strictly on the precedent set thirty years ago by "Grits" or "Liberals" in opposing the building of the Canadian Pacific Railway, an absurd proposal to build the A. & G. W. road for $16,000 a mile. He knew he could not be taken up, because the road had been already contracted for. This offer increased the tumult. Rutherford tried to propitiate Cushing, by inviting him to resume his portfolio. But Cushing and Cross were personally at daggers drawn. Therefore, Mr. Rutherford learned that his enemy had been in wait, lunged in his resignation. That brought Rutherford to a sense that he must stand by Cross or resign. He offered his resignation, since the assembly was still adhering to his ministry, and asked to wait Cross for premier. The lieutenant governor refused to accept Rutherford's resignation, because he still had apparently a majority of the assembly. So Rutherford stayed on. He refused the resignation of Cross, and tried his strength in a division. It gave him a majority of three. He continued in office with a backbone stiffened by Cross. It is very probable that the reduced ministerial party, if still together, will have no other trouble than voting down the bolters on occasion.

This division of the local Alberta Liberal party is likely to be important in its effects on the Federal Liberals, or Laurier party in Alberta. The Edmonton organ of Mr. Oliver, Sir Wilfrid's minister of the interior, "lay low," till it appeared that Cushing would down Rutherford and Cross. Then it came out with a strenuous criticism of their Alberta and Great Waterways project. Next day the scene changed. Cushing went down. Cross up, and Mr. Oliver's organ had put him in the position of a better on the wrong horse. Cross is too wise to cherish this, to his own future injury, against Oliver, but the incident reveals discussions that may cost Laurier half of his previous support at the next Federal general elections, which, for other reasons, do not promise to be a walk-over for the Ottawa premier

WAGNER AND HIS AUTO

Will Make a Bold Bid for Machine to be Offered to the Leading Batsman this Season

Detroit, Mich., March 26.—Hans Wagner has put in a bid for the automobile offer by an automobile company to the champion batsman of the country. He intimates that he considers his .330 of last year better than Cobb's .327 on the ground that he has had harder pitching to swat. Says Hans in his letter:

"Motor car for leading batsman has the medals and loving cup beaten a mile, and is a generous offer on your part. You cannot clearly decide the world's champion batsman on account of the different fielding and pitching in the two leagues. Something should be done whereby the leading batsman of each league should be considered."

RUSHES THROUGH KANSAS CITY

Weston, the Walker, Has a Divorced Wife There—Consequently, He Will Not Tarry

Kansas City, Mo., March 26.—Kansas City is just a whistling station for Edward Payson Weston, the two-legged special on its way from coast to coast. And perhaps there's a reason that the veteran transcontinental walker will not stop here when he arrives tomorrow morning. Listen:

Edward Payson Weston's wife, from whom he has been separated is living at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Weston has been in the city several months, having come here for a visit from her home in Brooklyn, N.Y. She is about 65 years old, rather plump, and of a motherly, kind appearance. And she's pleasant too, except when one thing is mentioned—her husband and the separation.

"I just don't care to discuss it," she said to a visitor this morning. "The fact is, I won't discuss it."

"Is Mr. Weston coming out when he reaches Kansas City?" the visitor asked.

"No, he is going right through."

"Will you see Mr. Weston when he passes through?" she was asked.

"I don't think so," Mrs. Weston said. "But I just don't care to discuss the matter at all."

CARNEY GETS NEW PLAYERS

Dugdale, of the Seattle Club Turns Over Chass, Smith and Mains to Calgary

Dugdale, manager of the Seattle Northwestern league, has turned over three useful players to Manager Bill Carney, of the Calgary pro team.

These men are Chass, pitcher, Smith catcher, and Mains, rf. These three men are fast enough for the Northwestern, but Manager Dugdale has more material than he can use at the present time. The transfer is a condition one, and these players will remain the property of Dugdale.

The Seattle manager believes a season in the Western Canada league will fit them for the Northwestern next season, or perhaps he will recall them in case any of his men meet with an accident.

CITY FATHERS NOT THERE

Inasmuch as the little embryo league between Mr. Potts and Mr. Morse was held outside the city limits, the city council did not meet and adjourn early as its custom was in days of yore, when controversies of this nature were allowed inside of the boundaries.—Albertan.

WINNIPEG CLUB HOLDS MEETING

Few Changes in the Line-up—Will Have New Suits—Smith, Last Year With us, Signs Maroon Contract

Last Thursday night the directors of the Winnipeg Baseball Club had an enthusiastic meeting. Those present were President Blackburn, Secretary Erizinger, Billy Dawit, W. Turnbull and Van Praagh.

"We are well financially," said President Blackburn, "and with a winning team this year we should come out well ahead."

Manager Lohr reported that everything was in good running order. He has lines out for a couple of players who, if secured, will burn up the league. The team will report on April 15 and do their spring training in Winnipeg.

The Maroons will be seen in new uniforms this season. The dark red suits will be discarded, and two new suits secured. The team will wear white uniforms, trimmed with red when at home, and the road suits will be grey with red trimmings. The outfit will be purchased in Winnipeg.

It is intended, turning River Park into a modern baseball arena. A new grand stand seating 1,200 people, and bleachers with a capacity of 1,000 will be erected.

The latest addition to the directorate, Mr. Van Praagh, late of Duluth, is proving a find, and is of great assistance to Manager Lohr.

This Year's Team

We will be strong in pitchers, said Harry Spencer will be on hand again, as will Clerzan, Joe Miller and Johnny Collins, the culture sinner. In addition, a new man, Williams by name, has added his moniker to a Maroon contract.

It is just possible Larry Piper may not play, as Sacramento, to whom he belongs, may desire to avail themselves of his services. A Maroon pitcher, the culture sinner, will be given a try-out with the pros, and Frank Roche and Lefty Shorey are two players who have already signed up.

Lefty Farrar, last year with Regina, has also signed along with Smith, who performed on Denny McGuire's Irishmen last season.

The team will line up similar to last year with Lohr in the centre pasture and flanked by Bond and Grogan, Hans Krueger will cover short and Holmoe will be given a try on third.

Two or three aspirants will fight it out for the difficult corner. Edmonds and Anderson will be back to do the receiving, while Jack Beatty will hold down the initial sack.

Mr. Lohr will have to do a little better than that line-up or he won't be one, two, six in this year's hunt for the Western Canada pennant.

Team on paper, looks very weak, but probably he has a lot of new men under cover.

STRATHCONA SOCCER CLUB

The Strathcona Association Football club met in that city last week. There is an abundance of good material in that city for a fast team and they expect to make a creditable showing in the City League. Two delegates were chosen to attend the league meeting in Edmonton and the following executive committee appointed: Messrs. Sadler, Lucas, Forrester, Jackson and McCormick. P. Mehan was elected captain, with Fred Emblem as his assistant. Frank Abbott will train the team.

POINTERS FOR ATHLETES

The 220 yard requires more speed than endurance. When you have enough speed and lack "staying power" run a longer distance, such as 250 yards at seven-eighths speed, until you acquire endurance. Spend your first three weeks in running 400 yards three times daily at five-eighths speed with 15-minute rests between each. The second three weeks spend 30 yards four times a day at five-eighths speed. The third three weeks repeat the first three weeks in running 400 yards at three-fourths speed and repeat the third three weeks practice six starts; after this run 200 yards, and repeat at seven-eighths speed.

ROOTERS' CLUB ORDERS BADGES

The Trusty President Will Provide 300 Nobby Emblems and as Many More as Required

President Vicarman of the rooters' club, is making strenuous preparations for the opening of the season.

He has ordered 300 badges for the faithful, with the stipulation that more can be rushed to the city when required. "Ye expects that about 300 of the tatty badges will be required. Ye gods! can you imagine 300 men with leather lungs, hurling defiance at the umpire and the visiting team. The press are considering a petition to President Gray asking to have heavy boiler plate placed around the press box. The delicate car-drums of the dope writers must be protected at any cost."

To return to the badges, they are grey with their blue stripes running down them. They bear the motto, "Boost, don't knock," and "Edmonton Rooters' Club."

It is expected this illustrious body will parade to the grounds on "Opening Day."

A GOOD INJURY

John White, the great Cornwall 1st and Indian, who went to Carlisle five of six weeks ago, will remain there, and will play on the Carlisle team.

THE BUSY PRESS AGENT

The latest work of the fight press agent is that Hugh McIntosh has chartered a steamship to bring a party of Australians to the United States to see the Jeffries-Johnson go, and that another party of English sportsmen are coming over from London, while there will be another from Paris, France. New York talks of running special trains. Baron Wilkes of New York, says he will run a special train to the coast for the exclusive use of colored men.

BLACKBURN FOR BISLEY

The Winnipeg ball club will be without its president for the greater portion of the season. Mr. Blackburn will again go to Bisley and intends leaving about the middle of June for the old country. He will retain office until his departure when it is likely A. H. Pailford will be home to take charge of affairs.

Mr. Blackburn leaves this week for New York on a business trip. He will return to Winnipeg in ten days.

THE BUSY CHESTY

Chesty Cox has led leagues four times in hitting. The Northern County twice, the Outlaw League of California, and the Western Canada League.

Some of the Rajah's favorites in "The Royal Chef" at the Empire this week.

HIS NAME IS SMITH

President Eckstrom Signs up an Umpire—Smith Hails From the Home of Bob Emslie.

Charles Smith, of St. Thomas, Ont., will be on the Western Canada base ball league staff of umpires this season.

The fact that he hails from the railroad city should be of great value to him. For St. Thomas developed and sent Bob Emslie to the majors many years ago.

Smith has not had the experience of Emslie, but he had a term in the Southern league and has been inspiring in Ontario for years. He has a voice specially suited for calling decisions, besides which he is a fearless and honest-to-the-ground arbiter.

He will delight fans when they hear him. It has been popularly supposed that Silk O'Loughlin has the market cornered when it comes to shouting "Ball Tidy" but when Smith runs his bat at the pitcher there is liable to be a big change of feeling.

LEZIE SIGNS WITH LETHBRIDGE

The Portland Club Disbanded and Left Phil a Free Agent—Chesty Cox Got Busy

Lezie signs "krosh Lethbridge is all worked up over the fact that their star pitcher of last season, Phil Lezie, will again be seen in one of their suits.

He joined the Lethbridge team about the middle of last season and from his advent, Corrigan's men became contenders in the race. He won nearly all the games he pitched, besides often coming to the aid of a fellow pitcher and saving the day.

With the drafting season opened, Lezie was taken over by Portland, of the Northwestern League, and Lethbridge received $400. Since then Portland was disbanded by the break-up in the Northwestern, and as the owners of the club have not placed any restrictions or claims on the pitcher he is a free agent.

Chesty Cox received a communication from Lezie on Saturday and soon laid the wires at work clinching the deal.

MILLAR SCORED TEN GOALS

The record of the goal-getters in the National Hockey League shows that Hay Miller got ten centers in nine games and Fred Whitford three in five games. Bert Boulton scored three goals in the three matches he played with the Shamrocks.

HOW TENNEY GOT INTO GAME

Famous First Baseman of the Giants Got His Start From Mgr. Seale of Boston

Marlin, Texas, March 26.—In an interview today Fred Tenney, first baseman of the Giants, told how he "broke into" big baseball. He said:

"During my baseball career I have been asked many times what induced me to take up baseball as a means of livelihood. My answer to that question always has been that I was delighted with the idea of someone being willing to pay me for doing what I loved. While I was at college, I became quite proficient as a player, and, naturally, always wondered if I really could play well enough to hold a job on a major league team."

"In June, 1894, during the week of commencement at Brown university, I received a telephone message from Manager Seale of the Boston club, saying all his catchers were disabled and would I come up the next day and help them out. I went up to Boston the next day and caught five innings of the game."

Broke his Finger

"I was unfortunate enough to get a foul tip on the forefinger of my throwing hand, breaking it at the second joint. That accident forced me out of the game, and I knew that I would not be able to play again for a month."

"I was feeling pretty blue over the outlook for an enforced month's idleness, but after I got my finger dressed, Manager Seale told me that Mr. Billings, one of the owners of the club, wanted to make an appointment to see me at his office. Why I got there he told me that he had been watching my work for some time past, and from the showing I made in the game I had caught for them he had been empowered to offer me a contract calling for $300 a month, dating from that day."

"I thought the Boston manager was joking, but when he advanced me $150 I signed the contract, and that is how I broke into the league. And in all the years that I have followed it I never have regretted signing that first contract."

PAYROLL OF THE OTTAWA CLUB

Hockey Team Drew $9,000 in Salaries—Roberts Got $40 a Week

Ottawa, March 27.—Though the Ottawa Hockey Club has not published its salary list around for public scrutiny, a fair idea of what kind of stipends the men have been drawing has been secured through one or two quarters. Next to Renfrew the Ottawa Hockey Club paid the highest salaries of any club in the National League. Slightly over nine thousand dollars were dispensed by Treasurer Percy Baskerville during the twelve weeks. All the players were paid by cheque weekly, the agreements calling for the services of each man till the 8th of March.

Bruce Stuart headed the lunch on the pay roll, $1,500 being the amount he is said to have been paid. The other salaries were in the vicinity of the following:

Stuart, $1,500; Lake, Walsh and Kerr, $1,200 each; Ripston and Leaver, $1,000 each; Smith, $75 a game; Shore, $60 a week; Mallen, $50 a week; Roberts, $40 a week.

NEW SUITS FOR MOOSE JAW

Moose Jaw intends to make a hit in their own yard if they fail to do so on the road. It is intended to wear the new uniforms on the home diamond and the "reds" they wore last year on our diamond.

$114; $114; $116

A peculiar coincidence has cropped up in hockey this winter. The Toronto Canoe Club dropped $114 on its season, which is the same figure the Argonauts paid when the Osgoode Club went only two dollars deeper, their deficiency being $116. The Canoe Club ran a senior and intermediate team; the Argos senior and junior, while Osgoode had only one senior.

LAUDER DREW WITH BURT

He Showed All His Old-Time Speed and Had All the Best of the Bout

Winnipeg, Man., March 27.—Winnipeg boxing fans who visited Selkirk Hall on Saturday night were treated to ten of the fastest rounds of the main event seen here for a long time, when Billy Lauder of Calgary and Bud Hart of Winnipeg fought to a draw. Though Referee Tony Caponi of Chicago gave his decision as a draw, the little Scotchman apparently had the best of it.

He showed all his old-time speed which he exhibited here a few years ago, and outside of the seventh round, when Burt scored heavily, Lauder had much the best of it. Burt showed himself a worthy opponent to the Canadian champion and made him go at all times, but he did not have the finish of the Calgary boy. However, the referee's decision seemed to please the crowd. The exhibition was a close one, and the clever work of both men called for the well merited applause throughout the scrap. A wrestling match between Ernie Sunberg and a stranger by the name of Haffenderson proved real interesting, as the local champion had his troubles in throwing his worthy adversary. Sunberg had his man on the defensive most of the time, but had to work hard to put his opponent's shoulders to the mat.

TORONTO PLAYERS MIGRATE

"Twenty Toronto amateurs and semi-pros will 'get out' this spring. Outfielder Tom Conley of the Lourdes Club of the Inter-Catholic League, will make his debut shortly. Conley, who led the league in all departments last season will play the outfield for the Bloomington, Ill. club. He will report next Saturday."—Toronto Globe.

Wonder where the illustrious Dingo McGuire will spend this summer? Mexico City might be a good safe spot. The Mexicans can't have heard how he "managed" it? The Edmonton team last season.

AT THE EMPIRE THEATRE

All signs point to a heavy demand for seats when the sale opens for the big musical comedy "The Royal Chef," which will be presented at the Empire April 1st and with special Saturday matinee. This is indicated by the numerous number of orders which have been received by phone and mail, and by the frequent inquiries that have been made at the box office during the past few days. This unusual interest has been due to the knowledge that "The Royal Chef" is one of the most famous of all current attractions in this country, and that Edmonton is to have the number one company and production, the same in every particular that has distinguished the remarkable career of this exceptional show. The signal success of this musical farce is admitted by all, and the potency of its drawing powers is generally regarded by the theatrical people as practically without a parallel. It is a vast production into which everything has been thrust apparently, to make it remarkable among its contemporaries, scenery, costumes, electrical effects and other embellishments have been provided with a lavishness never hitherto attempted by producers of "big musical shows" and the large company of comedians, singers, dancers and specialists is employed to give adequate expression to the delightful comedy and charming music with which the show abounds. "The Royal Chef" promises to be one of the distinctly delightful events of the season, and it will probably be greeted by as many people as can get within the four walls of the theatre.

WOULD DEPOSE R. L. BORDEN

French Canadian Conservatives are Said to be Dissatisfied With Party Leader.

Montreal, March 28.—Influential French-Canadian Conservatives in Montreal are seeking to depose Hon. R. L. Borden from the party leadership. It is known that a secret meeting was held at the Lafontaine Club, when the entire question was thoroughly threshed out, and some wretched expressions were used against Mr. Borden. It is generally declared by men prominent in Conservative circles that French-Canadians will take no part whatever in the coming convention unless it is agreed that Mr. Borden relinquish the leadership.

Italians Will Protest

Toronto, March 28.—There is talk among the Italians of Toronto of calling a mass meeting to protest against the new government regulation requiring immigrants to have at least $25 in their possession before being allowed into the country. The regulation, or rather, the methods in which it is being enforced, is, it is claimed, proving a great hardship to some, and keeping out desirable men.

MYSTERY SHROUDS THIS MAN'S DEATH

Young Wife Declares That the Shooting Was Accidental—Relatives Disbelieve Her.

Whittemouth, Man., March 28.—The shooting of Samuel Dovitch has caused great excitement here. His seventeen-year-old wife who was alone in the room with him at the time, declares that it was an accident. The rifle was hung just below a shelf, and it may be that she knocked it down while getting some dishes. Relatives of the dead man, however, refuse to accept this explanation. It is alleged that the two, who had been married only two weeks, did not live happily together.

The night before the shooting the young woman went to her mother's house, and said that she was not going to live any more with Dovitch. Her mother told her to go back. Next morning Mrs. Dovitch, accompanied by a younger sister, went home. Arriving at the house, the sister saw things were in confusion and decided to go back home, not staying for breakfast.

Accused His Wife

What passed after this between the two nobody clearly knows. The house is occupied by two families. When the shot was fired the woman living in the other part ran out, and was met at the door by Dovitch's wife, who told her not to go in, as she would see something that was not good. She pushed past her and saw the man on the floor. Turning, she ran to a neighbor's to give the alarm. In a short time a crowd had gathered round the wounded man, who was still able to speak, made a good will, as they call it in Galicia, telling his father to get together money which was owing to him; and send it home to the church; to sell everything, horses and cattle, and give the proceeds to his brother, and give nothing to that woman, evidently meaning his wife, and he solemnly declared that she was the cause of his death and had fired the rifle.

C.P.R. TRAIN SERVICE.

Recognizing the great advantage it would be to the business men of the cities of Calgary and Edmonton in being able to travel between the two cities on night trains, thus saving the loss of considerable time, and also recognizing the advantage it would be to the persons living in the towns between Calgary and Edmonton to travel to the respective stations from distances within a hundred miles on the morning train, transact their business, and return in the afternoon of the same day, the Canadian Pacific Railway has decided with the issue of the summer time table, about June 1st, to inaugurate a tri-weekly night service, giving the same a thirty days' trial.

The time of the train has not yet been definitely decided upon, but it will leave Calgary and Edmonton alternate nights about 2:40 o'clock and arrive at destination about 8:30 o'clock. The train will run to Red Deer in each direction without making more than one or two local stops, passing Red Deer about 4:45 o'clock or 5:00 o'clock and picking up any local passengers wishing to go into Strathcona or Calgary respectively.

If at the end of thirty days it is found there is not sufficient extra business offering to justify the additional expense of this service it will be discontinued. Owing to the rapid development of the towns between Calgary and Bassano it has been found necessary to inaugurate an additional local train between these points, to run daily, except Sunday, commencing Monday, April 4th. Train will leave Bassano at 7:00 o'clock, arriving Calgary at 10:15 o'clock; returning, leave Calgary at 18 o'clock, arrive Bassano at 21:30 o'clock, making local stops in both directions. On the same date an improvement will be made in the running of the train between Lacombe and Castor. The westbound train will leave Castor at 5:30 o'clock, arriving Lacombe at 11:00 o'clock; returning, will leave Lacombe at 12:30 o'clock, and arrive Castor at 18:40 o'clock; service being daily except Sunday as at present. Commencing Tuesday, April 5th, a semi-weekly train travelling between Calgary and Acme will be run each Tuesday and Friday, leaving Calgary 8:05 o'clock, arrive Acme 12:35 o'clock; returning, leave Acme 13:55 o'clock, arriving Calgary 18:00 o'clock. This will open up a large section of country which has previously had no train facilities.

YOUNG GIRL'S BODY BURNED AND CUT

She Was Last Seen When She Went to Apply for a Position.

New York, March 28.—The burned body of a sixteen-year-old girl, Ruth Wheeler, who has been missing since Thursday, was found yesterday afternoon on the fire escape adjoining the room formerly occupied by Albert Wolter, a clerk who had been up under arrest charged with Miss Wheeler's abduction. The body was not only burned, but cut in a number of places. One of the attendants at the house, 222 East 75th street, noticed a bag on his rear fire escape, and thinking it contained garbage, tossed it over the railing into the yard. The secret of its contents was not disclosed until another tenant examined the bag, 15 minutes later.

Wolter, who is 25 years' old, was held on $5,000 bail this morning on an abduction charge. Although he denied ever having seen the Wheeler girl, it is charged that a local business college sent her to his place last Thursday in answer to a post card from Wolter seeking a stenographer. The police say they traced her to the house on East 75th street, and are authority for the statement that Wolter lived there also.

Toronto Property Sold

Toronto, March 28.—Another block of stores on Yonge street has just changed hands. They are situated between St. Albans and St. Joseph streets and have a frontage of about 86 feet by a depth of 100 feet. The price paid was about $760 a foot, or $55,000 for the block.

REPORT EXPECTED SOON

Municipal Authorities Expect to Hear From Walter J. Francis Any Day Now.

"The report of Walter J. Francis may be expected about any day now," said Ald. Armstrong to The Capital this morning. "When Mr. Francis left the city he said that we would hear from him within three or four weeks. The time is about up so we are looking to hear what he has to say."

Ald. Armstrong is chairman of the investigating committee appointed by the city council to determine what improvements might be made in the operation of Edmonton public utilities. The first thing done was to secure Mr. Francis, a municipal expert from Montreal, to make a careful survey of the situation. His report is now expected and will be published in the newspapers, says Ald. Armstrong, when it arrives. Great expectations are cherished by the city council as to what the suggestions of Mr. Francis will do for Edmonton.

MOOSE JAW RAILWAY

Ratepayers Will Vote a Twenty-Year Franchise to an Ottawa Company.

Moose Jaw, Sask., March 28.—At a meeting of the city council held on Saturday an agreement was signed, subject to the approval of the ratepayers, granting to an Ottawa company an exclusive street railway franchise for a period of twenty years. By the terms of the agreement three miles of railway must be in operation this year and additional three miles before the end of 1911.

The Vermilion Signal says of its former editor: "W. B. Cameron is located at Bassano, Alberta, in the heart of the irrigation district, some thirty or forty miles east of Calgary. It is understood that he has received contracts for advertising which will total upwards of $500 a month. Bassano is receiving a great deal of attention this year from the C. P. R. and the company is spending enormous sums of money in that vicinity."

ALDERMAN'S SON WAS THE BURGLAR

Mystery of Three Recent Burglaries in Ottawa Cleared Up by his Arrest.

Ottawa, March 28.—The mystery of three recent burglaries in Ottawa was cleared up yesterday by the arrest of Severin Desjardins, son of an alderman. The policeman who saw a man at the store of Currier on Rideau street early Good Friday morning recognized a portrait in the rogues' gallery as that of a man at whom he has as he was running away, and the arrest followed. The prisoner confessed to two other recent burglaries in Major's store.

POSTPONE CONVENTION

Conservative Gathering Expected for June May be Held Later.

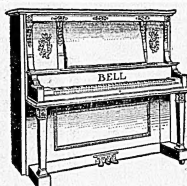

Ottawa, March 28.—Reports are current here that the Dominion Conservative convention called for June will be postponed. Upon enquiries being made, it was learned that the Conservatives have not definitely decided to change the date of their Dominion convention, but it is true that the question of change of date has been widely discussed.

The New Boss

"I know a young and beautiful lady," says Rose Pastor Stokes, "who once visited a plant that had a new foreman. 'Who is the boss here?' the beautiful lady asked, approaching the foreman. 'I am the boss, madam,' he replied. 'Oh, are you?' she said. 'He thought he detected amazement in her voice, and drawing himself up, he answered coldly: 'Yes, I am, and I'll prove it. Higginson!' 'An old fellow looked up from his work. 'Higginson, go get your envelope. You're fired.'—Washington Star.

It takes a lot of pluck to win, and it takes a whole lot more to lose with good grace. Nobody wants to be a good loser unless they find it impossible to be a good winner; therefore do not waste a minute thinking what you would do if you should lose, but take every precaution to assure yourself a place among the winners. We want every one to come in with a big bunch of subscriptions. Those who do are almost sure to win the prize of their choice.

No One Knows

As the contest department knows little more than the general public as to the strength of the contestants, it will be useless to seek information along that line.

This has been a great and exciting contest, and it will be a great honor to win. The campaign the past month has been of the most strenuous order, the utmost fairness has prevailed, and no one has been given an advantage over another. Some loyal supporters have had considerable fun circulating "score" stories. That's good campaigning. These little tales always relate to the great reserve vote and held-back subscriptions of candidates. It will be demonstrated tonight whether these stories are true or not.

CANADA TO ACCEPT WATERWAY TREATY

United States has Taken Steps to Prevent Exploitation Along St. Mary's River.

Ottawa, March 28.—The Canadian government has decided to approve of the waterways treaty with the United States as drafted in 1908 with the senate rider. This treaty provides for control of international waters for power, irrigation and navigation purposes.

The original treaty was approved by Canada, but in the course of its passage through the American senate a rider was added providing that existing rights of riparian owners on the St. Marys river at Sault Ste. Marie in either country should not be affected. Canada declined to accept this rider and the ratification of the treaty has been held in abeyance since.

To meet the objections of the government here, the United States department has expropriated all the land on the American side of the St. Mary's river, and has satisfied Canada that no power rights will be given them which could in any way conflict with Canadian interests. Canada will now, therefore, be a party to the treaty.

By the treaty the amount of water to be taken from the Niagara on the American side is limited to 20000 cubic feet per second, and on the Canadian side to 36000 cubic feet. It provides that each country shall have the right to half the water of the Milk and St. Mary's rivers crossing the line between Montana and Saskatchewan. It provides for the free use of international waters, canals and Lake Michigan for vessels of both countries. It provides that the water of a stream crossing over the international boundary cannot be diverted until sanctioned by a permanent international commission of six. Official announcement of the ratification of the treaty is expected to be made within a short time.

All California will unite in opposing the claims of New Orleans for federal aid for an exposition to celebrate the canal opening.

Cures Meningitis

New York, March 28.—Dr. Simon Flexner, of the Rockefeller Institute, who has been laboring for years to find an antidote for spinal meningitis, has at last succeeded in perfecting a serum that, in the early stages of the disease, is as effective as the anti-toxin which has swept the fear of death from diphtheria.

KEPT A PRISONER

Traveller States That he Was Detained in a Vancouver Hotel

Vancouver, March 26.—Claiming that he had been held prisoner in the Royal Hotel for twenty days, Henry Berry, a commercial traveller of Montreal, sent an affidavit to the special meeting of the license commissioners.

According to Berry's affidavit he went to the Royal hotel on February 16 under the influence of liquor and was there detained in room 9 against his wishes until March 9. He never left the room but was kept supplied with liquor and claims that $150 was taken from him. On March 8 he was removed to a private hospital suffering from alcoholic poisoning and later received a bill for $300 from David Patterson, the proprietor of the Royal.

Patterson has been summoned to appear next Thursday and show cause why his license should not be cancelled.

W. P. Boyd is locked up in the police station today because he behaved in a disorderly fashion on First street last night about twelve o'clock. While H. Robinowitz was locking up his store, Boyd, it appears, tried to throttle him. Robinowitz ran to the Alberta restaurant with his brother, and Boyd threw stones at them. The brothers called up the police, and when Constable Fraser arrested Boyd he was still holding half a dozen stones.

The Alberta and Great Waterways Railway Company will move its offices to the Alberta Block on April 1st. It is said that the company is planning the erection of a large office building in this city in the near future.

H. Lumsden, formerly of the engineering staff of the Manitoba government, has arrived in the city and will be connected with the construction department of the Alberta and Great Waterways Railway.

R. H. Roberts, principal of the Alexander-Taylor school, and president of the Northern Alberta Teachers' Association, is confined to his room with a bad attack of grippe. He will be unable to attend the teachers' convention in Calgary, which opens tomorrow.

Commissioner Butchart and Dr.
Whitlaw, medical health officer, made an investigation of the park property on Jasper avenue east along the river bank. It is the intention to dump refuse down below and fill up the hole-low, facing it off with earth later on.
In this way it is believed an attractive park can be built up. A driveway running down the face of the hill and along the flats is also contemplated.

The Nova Scotia Boarding House,
on Griesbach street, will probably occupy the Watt Block on the northeast corner of Queen's Ave. and Rice street opposite the Imperial Hotel, early in the month of April.

M. Shirley of the firm of Phelan and Shirley, and Foy and Foy, subcontractors, are still in the city, having been unable to get transportation for their outfits over the C.T.P. line. The baiting gangs are expected to be through today, however, and then the contractors will get westward as quickly as possible. During the compulsory standstill the mules and horses belonging to the outfit have been fed and corralled at the J. Y. Griffin live stock sheds.

In some parts of Belgium sixty percent of the population cannot read or write. Education is not compulsory, and the government, which is clerical, opposes the bill which the Liberals and Socialists are endeavoring to secure for compulsory education. The question is now before parliament. The government insists that the child belonging to its parents entirely, and that they cannot be forced to give him any education without infringing their rights to freedom of action.

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN H. SMITH

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

BEING at peace with yourself sometimes means that you have just had a satisfying scrap with some one else.

Taking care of yourself shouldn't mean injuring your neighbor.

If you were to get acquainted with yourself you might encounter some startling revelations.

The thing that one man hates you
for, another man
may admire you
for, so stop worrying and choose your man.

Keep out of harm's way, but in doing so don't run up against an indictment for cowardice.

The world doesn't owe the man a living who has the earth.

Sorrow shows how to keep out of the way of trouble, but it is a heavy price to pay for the information.

Some people go so far out of their way to do another an injury that they never succeed in finding their way back.

Many a man thinks he is the whole thing when he is only married to the whole thing.

Sorrow is a sort of internal revenue for the support of happiness.

Just Ahead.
Hello! What I would like to see if I could have my pick
Of all the things that I desire
I'd choose it pretty
If by a magic word or sign
Or wishing, I could bring
The thing, I'd have it here at once—
Just spring.

I think old water I admire
As much as any one.
But there's a limit, your admiring
To winter's brand of fun.
I'd like to lose it and instead
Get hooked up on my string.
The way an angler lands a fish—
Just spring.

There may be other things as nice
If pushed, I would allow.
But I can't think of anything
To equal it just now.
I'd like to see the snow banks rise
And for the north take wing.
That we might have in place of them
Just spring.

Oh, joyous days of daffodils
And so forth without end.
You come in a hurry, if you can,
And you've still got a friend.
Your praises in the choicest words
Most gladly I will lend.
Come, cunning, sweet affinity—
Just spring.

Not Worth Mentioning.
"See here—when you told me that honey you said he hadn't a fault."
"What's the matter with him?"
"He's blind."

"Yes, and he has the heavens."
"That so?"
"There's a spavin on one foot!"
"Well, isn't he all right otherwise?"

Certainly.
"He has a most amazing appetite. It embarrasses him."
"Does it?"
"Yes, a awfully."
"Too bad. What does he do about it?"
"Takes it to the dining room."

His Stunt.
"He talks an awful lot."
"Too bad, isn't it?"
"Pretty bad."
"Can't he stop?"
"No; he earns his living that way."
"Auctioneer?"
"No; husband of a rich wife."

Another View of It.
"Poor fellow! He is dead."
"But not poor fellow."
"No."
"Why?"
"Didn't you know he was just about to be married?"

Unsupersatified.
"He must be a kind hearted man."
"Think so?"
"Well, I just judged from fragments of his conversation that I heard last night that he has taken one of his anulies to raise."

THE DAY IN STRATHCONA

Budget of News from the City on the South Bank of the River

Miss Velma Bernard of Wetaskiwin is spending the Easter week with friends in the city.

Miss Vera Grady, who underwent an operation for appendicitis on Thursday, is getting along as well as could be expected.

Mr. V. McElroy has disposed of his house in the south end of the city at a good figure and has moved to the house on Main street formerly occupied by Mr. P. Manning.

A number of the Strathcona teachers are attending the provincial convention in Calgary this week. Among those who are in attendance are Misses Bleakney, Sutherland, Kirkwood, Wark, Porter, and Messrs.
Clarke and Robertson.

G. Fred McNally, I.P.S., left on Monday morning for Calgary, where he will attend the provincial teachers' convention.

The Mission Band of Knox Church had a treat for its members in the form of a tea from a till on Saturday afternoon. A very enjoyable time was spent.

In the Metropolitan Church on Sunday evening there was a special musical service given by the choir under the leadership of Mr. E. L. Luck. A good musical programme was presented to a large and appreciative congregation.

UP TO THE MINUTE MODES.

A Comfortable Way of Fastening the Veil—Hems of Velvet.
There is a novel little contrivance for fastening veils. Instead of twisting the net the delicate veil fabric is inclosed in a ring of material which holds it in position. A slip attached to the ring keeps the veil in place.

The deep hem of velvet is a pleasant change in the trimming line and is quite novel, its predecessor of the nineties being much narrower.
Diagonal serge is the smartest material for the chic Russian blouse dress.
Girls' frocks are now being made with lines of transparent materials.
The dress illustrated is of dotted mous-line.
